

Little Venice townhouse backing onto ‘the best communal gardens in London’ seeks £10.75mn

NEWS 05 Jul, 2023

Stucco-fronted stunner has become available for the first time in 20 years.

A particularly fine specimen has come up for sale on Randolph Road in Little Venice.

The c.4,000 sq ft stucco-fronted townhouse has been launched onto the open market this week at £10.75mn, having been in the same hands for the last two decades.

Dating back to the mid-1800s, it has a private rear garden with a gate leading to what the agents describe as “the finest communal gardens in London”, complete with children’s play area and tennis court.

The tip-top interior is in tip-top condition, and there's a double front-to-back drawing room and kitchen family room, along with five bedrooms and access to a roof terrace.

Locally-based firm Ian Green Residential has the instruction.

In Pictures: Randolph Road, Little Venice

£10.75mn Ian Green Residential

Particulars here \(https://www.iangreenresidential.com/property-for-sale/house-semi-detached-for-sale-in-randolph-road-little-venice-london-w9/386\)